Labor plans big get-out-vote drive to defeat Nixon threat

from the EDITOR'S CHAIR

BACK BOTH JACK AND PAT

President Kennedy has asked for, and deserves, a Congress that will enact his programs.

Governor Brown's record of accomplishments during the past four years is based upon the fact that he had majorities in both houses of the Legislature.

With the exception of the 16th Assembly District, Alameda and Contra Costa County members of the Legislature were strong supporters of the governor's program.

These members should be re-elected to back up Governor Brown for another four years.

They are: State Senator John W. Holmdahl of Alameda County and Assemblymen Jerome Waldie (10th District), John Knox (11th District), Carlos Bee (13th District), Robert W. Crown (14th District), Nicholas Petris (15th District) and William Byron Rumford (17th District).

All are friends of labor and are endorsed by COPE.

Contra Costa County's State Senator George Miller Jr. is not up for re-election until 1964.

16TH ASSEMBLY DISTRICT

In Alameda County's 16th Assembly District, the incumbent, Don Mulford, has a 75 per cent anti-labor voting record. This means he voted against labor three out of four times on important bills.

COPE has endorsed Robert L. Hughes, the Democratic candidate. Hughes, an Oakland attorney and trustee in bankruptcy

Not unlike Prop. 18 fight, AFLCIO expert warns

The Alameda County labor movement turned its entire strength toward re-electing Governor Edmund G. (Pat) Brown and other Democratic candidates endorsed by COPE this week.

In a talk to Central Labor Council delegates Monday night, Andrew J. Biemiller, AFLCIO legislative director from Washington, D.C., listed five goals. He said the California labor movement must:

- Permanently retire Richard M. Nixon from politics and prevent a return of the right-to-work threat.

- Get every voter to the polls to insure the re-election of Governor Edmund G. (Pat) Brown and his entire administration—whom Biemiller called "as good a governor and team as any state in the nation."

- Elect enough new Democratic congressmen in California to offset losses expected because of reapportionment in some other states and give President Kennedy's program a solid margin in Congress.

- Fight the off-year trend for the party in power to lose seats in Congress.

- Re-elect Congressman Jeffery Cohelan and George P. Miller in Alameda County; elect W. Donlon (Don) Edwards, Democratic candidate in the new Ninth Congressional District in Southern Alameda and eastern Santa Clara counties; elect Charles (Chuck) Weidner and defeat Republican John Baldwin in Contra Costa County.

ASH: 80,000 COUNTY MARGIN

Robert S. Ash, CLC executive secretary, called for a large number of volunteers between now and the election to help the Brown team carry Alameda County by 80,000 votes.

He said this will make up for Republican votes in some parts of the state and will "wipe out the deficit from when California went in the Nixon column two years ago."

It'll take work to do this, though, Ash emphasized.

He said the record shows Republicans turn out 90 per cent of their voters. The Democratic percentage is usually closer to 60 per cent, according to Ash. He said Democrats must get out 80 per cent next Tuesday.

DOWN THE DRAIN?

"If Nixon gets in — and there's a good chance he might — a lot of the work we did in the Proposition 18 campaign may go down the drain," Richard K. Groulx, assistant CLC secretary, warned.

"If Nixon wins, we have nobody to blame but ourselves."

Groulx added that we are to blame, too, if Proposition 24 passes. Referring to a recent poll which said that most of those interviewed would vote for the measure, Groulx said people apparently

Pat Brown: our best governor

Governor Edmund G. (Pat) Brown is the best governor California has ever had.

Here is his record:

- EMPLOYMENT — California became the first state to adopt a journeyman training law to cope with automation.

Job training programs for displaced workers have been established, and trainees can qualify for unemployment insurance payments while learning new skills.

Millmen 550

By CLYDE JOHNSON

There is a great danger of "right-to-work" legislation if we let Tricky Dick sneak into the governor's chair next Tuesday.

I say "sneak" because he would be sneaking by the union men and their families and friends who might fail to vote.

Bill Sidell, our new General Executive Board member-elect, urged delegates to our State Mill meeting in Los Angeles to help turn out a huge labor vote to re-elect Governor Pat Brown.

Sidell, who has just returned from Arizona, said the "right-to-work" law there was destroying the Phoenix Millmen's local and that out-of-state cabinets and fixtures had already swamped their industry.

I plead with you — if you want to save our jobs in this industry and the conditions we have established — be sure to vote and get your friends to vote for Labor's candidates.

This is our situation now — we are fighting to stop the flood of out-of-state cabinets and fixtures. Only one employer in the Bay Area is helping in this respect! The Association leaders sport Nixon bumper strips, and all we hear from them is a whine for Mississippi wage classifications.

Instead of joining the fight for legislation to protect our industry, they are trying to cheapen the classifications we have in some of our agreements.

If they can win the election and get anti-labor legislation to strangle your union, you will be faced with the destruction of our working standards and our industry — just as is happening now to our brothers in Phoenix.

The Taft-Hartley Law limits our efforts to fight out-of-state cheap-wage competition and foreign imports.

Our State Council's Committee for Research and Promotion, headed by Anthony Ramos, has been holding a finger in the dyke to prevent our industry from being swamped by Mississippi-type competition. They are spearheading the drive for state legislation to protect the industry. Governor Brown and his administration are now working to protect the situation for our industry.

Let me remind our members of what we are fighting to keep. We have seniority — which is not only job protection, it is the key to qualifying for two and three-week vacations and for paid holidays.

We have the highest wage scales in the country for our trade. We got them with a strong union. A record of our grievances on chiseling on wages and overtime is ample proof of how some employers feel.

We have a health and welfare program, pensions and a sick leave program coming up. You should hear some employers scream about payments to these funds.

If you are willing to do a little bit, do this:

Vote for Labor's candidates on Tuesday. Then make sure every voter in your family and among your friends goes to the polls. They are voting for your future! A few hours of effort by thousands of union men can protect that future!

Steamfitters Local 342

By JIM MARTIN

In last week's notes it was explained, in connection with the Trade Line Agreement between Locals 159 and 342, how the Special Committee of the General Executive Board of the United Association conducted hearings here in this area and their ad interim decision. Therefore the following is their final decision rendered:

That the Trade Line Agreement of March 17, 1939, confers trade and territorial jurisdiction in Contra Costa County to Local Union 342 and Local Union 159. That Article I of the Trade Line Agreement of the 17th day of March, 1939, provides as follows:

"All plumbing and heating in Contra Costa County shall come under the jurisdiction of Plumbers and Steamfitters Local Union 159 of the United Association."

The word "Plumbing" in this Section I shall be interpreted to include all piping and sanitary work to dispose of human waste and sanitary piping disposing of the same, including down spouts and drains disposing of rain water, drinking water and all piping transporting the same. The word "Plumbing" shall also include all refrigeration piping for drinking water. Likewise, all welding pertaining to the coverage of the word "Plumbing" in Article I shall be done by members of Local Union 159. However, if the main water supply line is of an all-purpose nature, Local Union 342 shall install the same and make necessary connections to the first valve. This is particularly true in all work done in industrial or manufacturing plants, and all-purpose main line shall mean a main water supply line where the preponderance of the water main is for industrial purposes.

The word "Heating" in Section I means heating and shall include all heating used for the purpose of human comfort. If the main supply line is of an all-purpose nature, Local Union 342 will install the same and shall make necessary connections to the first valve and all-purpose steam line shall mean if the preponderance of the steam line is for industrial purposes. The word "Heating" shall also include air conditioning. Air conditioning shall include all air conditioning used for the purpose of human comfort and shall be installed by members of Local Union 159. If the main supply line is of an all-purpose nature, Local Union 342 will install the main and make all necessary connections to the first valve.

The 1939 Trade Line Agreement further provides:

"All piping for Service Stations and Garages in Contra Costa County shall come under the jurisdiction of Plumbers and Steamfitters Local Union 159."

All welding necessary for the piping and installations at service stations and garages in Contra Costa County shall be done by members of Local Union 159 under Section II of the Trade Line Agreement.

This reminder will be the last before our November 6, 1962, General Election. Bear in mind the importance of this most historical General Election.

Enclosed with your enrollment card for your insurance, a labor endorsement pamphlet was sent to you. We appeal to all our brothers, whatever their party affiliation, to consider this pamphlet recommendation. All labor people have, on the basis of all available research, the best recommendations to vote the straight labor endorsement. But most important, do not fail to vote. This is our duty to our country. No complaints should be voiced by any non-voting citizen; you void same by your neglect.

Soon all our brothers will receive their insurance booklet. Enrollment cards are coming in fast, and we hope none of you forget to mail them back to our office.

Due to the importance of maintaining your insurance in force, we ask you to remit your dues promptly to our office. No member will be allowed to remain a member if they are over two months delinquent in dues ($11.00) or its equivalent (whether dues or assessments), and you will suspend yourself if in arrears for this period of time.

Very important also, if and when you change address, please notify us. Help us to be able to contact you if necessary.

Report to us when we send you a barber or when you need one. We cannot help all, all of the time, but we sure keep trying.

$21 3/4 million for county in Prop. 1A

At least $21,727,700 will be earmarked for Alameda County if Proposition 1A passes.

Of this, $13,458,000 will go for new chemistry and law buildings and to meet other classroom needs at the University of California in Berkeley and at the university's Richmond Field Station.

Another $9,251,000 will be allotted for further development of the new Alameda County State College campus.

In addition to the nearly $21 3/4 million, four East Bay junior colleges would share in some $20 million allotted to the state's junior colleges for construction needs.

To the Ladies: FROM the EDITOR

THREE YEARS AGO, the Association of California Consumers was formed as a non-partisan group dedicated to protecting consumers' interests in the market place.

This year, the association sent questionnaires to both Governor Edmund G. (Pat) Brown and Richard M. Nixon. They were asked their positions on various consumer issues.

Governor Brown filled out his questionnaire and returned it to the association's office at 41 Sutter St., San Francisco.

But Nixon didn't even have the courtesy to write and state that he was declining to answer the questions.

NIXON was charged with "gross indifference to the needs of housewives and all other consumers in California" by George Brunn, secretary of the association.

Brunn added: "Nixon wasn't even courteous enough to reply, stating that he declined to answer the questionnaire—despite the fact that it was sent out to him more than a month ago. And we have tried by mail, telephone and wire to get an answer. We even extended the deadline on it by more than two weeks."

"Nixon's silence," said Brunn, "can be indicative of nothing but his gross indifference to the needs of housewives and all other consumers of California."

GOVERNOR BROWN, in filling out the questionnaire, indicated support of major consumer reforms favored by the association.

He has already put himself on record in favor of the average consumer by pushing for legislative approval of the Consumer Counsel's Office and by backing up Consumer Counsel Helen Nelson in her fights on behalf of the buying public.

Nixon, on the other hand, has a long record of voting against the interests of consumers.

Part of this record was listed in this column last week.

Nixon's refusal to answer the questionnaire is just another example of his indifference to the interests of "rank-and-file" citizens.

Conciliation court to cut divorce rate asked by Phillips

George W. Phillips Jr., COPE-endorsed candidate for Superior Court, Office No. 2, has urged a county conciliation court to keep marriages from breaking up.

Phillips said the Los Angeles conciliation court has saved 43 out of every 100 divorce-threatened marriages to come before it.

"Saving a marriage may save a child," Phillips, a Hayward attorney, said. "As a member of the Hayward Union High School Board for seven years, I learned that there is a definite connection between broken homes and delinquent children."

Phillips said statistics show 90 per cent of school dropouts and discipline problems come from broken homes in Hayward.

In San Leandro, he said, more than half of those who drop out of schools and 90 per cent of problem children are from broken homes.

WELFARE COSTS

"If Alameda County could cut its divorce rate by even one-tenth," Phillips declared, "its welfare and criminal court costs would be cut even more because there usually is more than one child to a family, and it is the broken home which is the breeding ground for delinquency and which contributes the most to the welfare load."

Phillips, 48, has practiced law in Alameda County for 22 years.

Powers hits Nixon —to vote for Brown

Harold J. (Butch) Powers last week joined a growing list of Republicans who can't stomach Nixon in endorsing Governor Edmund G. (Pat) Brown for re-election.

The group ranges all the way from Norris Poulson, former mayor of Los Angeles, who called Brown's re-election "necessary for California's future," to Earl Warren Jr., who changed his registration to Democratic and is actively campaigning for Brown.

Powers, lieutenant governor under Governor Knight, was a candidate for governor but withdrew before the primary. He said Nixon "has failed to come up with a single solitary program beneficial to California."

Tribune 'sorta' endorses Nixon, also recommends 6 Democrats

The Oakland Tribune endorsed Richard M. Nixon for governor last Sunday.

The belated endorsement contained almost as many kind words for incumbent Governor Edmund G. (Pat) Brown as it did for Nixon.

And the editorial cartoon which accompanied the editorial was a caricature which could have been drawn by the opposition.

Here are sample quotes from the editorial:

"We would not detract from the solid accomplishments which Governor Brown can justly claim for his Administration . . . The performance of the present Administration has been beyond criticism in many instances. . . We deem absolutely fantastic the claim that Governor Brown is 'soft on Communism.' That is sheer poppycock and insulting to the intelligence of the voters. . . Summing up, we gladly acknowledge that Governor Brown is entitled to full credit on several counts. . ."

Although it endorsed Republicans for all statewide offices, the Tribune also came out Sunday for John W. Lynch, member of the State Board of Equalization; Congressman George P. Miller (8th District); State Senator John W. Holmdahl, and Assemblymen Jerome Waldie (10th District); Carlos Bee (13th District) and Nicholas C. Petris (15th District).

All are Democratic incumbents.

TRI-COUNTY JOINT COMMITTEE ON RAPID TRANSIT

The Committee, after exhaustive research, well aware of the necessity of a good transit system, well aware of the tremendous economic boom to the laboring people in its construction, must refuse endorsement of the proposed plan. The Committee challenges the Authority, the Cost and the actual feasibility of the plan.

1. AUTHORITY

The Rapid Transit Authority is appointive, not elective, and as such, is neither responsible nor responsive to the people of San Francisco, Alameda and Contra Costa counties.

2. COST AND TAX STRUCTURE

The cost of this enterprise is being projected to the voters as a $792,000,000 capital investment. While the true facts indicate that for Capital Improvement alone, $996,000,000 will be expended. For interest and debt service, another $576,000,000 for a gross total of approximately $1,500,000,000, or a cost of $20,000,000 per mile and that's not all.

3. THE PLAN ITSELF

Almost one-half of the planned route serves industrial areas. This is especially true in Alameda County. The vast majority of the residential area receives no service whatsoever. The running times, even though believed to be exaggerated, still are within minutes of present transportation facilities. The Committee seriously questions the 70-80 MPH, 20 second stops and 90 second frequencies. The transportation public has yet to prove itself that mechanical.

The Plan being entirely electrical and the vulnerability of electrical power, even in normal times, makes it very questionable as to its claimed Civil Defense facilities.

At present there are three transportation companies competitive to the Plan. They are San Francisco Municipal Railway, operating at a loss of over $6,000,000 per year; the A. C. Transit Lines, operating at a loss of over $90,000 per month, and Western Greyhound Lines, operating Contra Costa at a loss of $200,000 per year, or an annual loss in excess of $7,280,000 per year. Yet our Transit Authority says that the profit from this system will make it self-sustaining. They may, as we patrons will have no control over the fare structure, operation, schedule frequency or perpetual taxes. Surely the existing transportation companies should be given their chance to propose a system within the scope of both Civil and Private Industry. $20,000,000 per mile is not the answer.

All of the property owners in the three Counties will pay for this system; however, many will not live near the system or be serviced by the lines.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

There are two important races for the Alameda County Board of Supervisors.

In the First District, John D. Murphy, the incumbent, was appointed by Governor Brown to fill a vacancy two years ago. He is now vice-chairman of the board and will be its next chairman if re-elected.

Murphy helped obtain the Alameda Creek flood control project and has taken big steps to solve other district problems.

Murphy's opponent operates a service station which is "un-organized," according to a report to Central Labor Council delegates, and can hardly be expected to support labor programs.

In the Second District, COPE has endorsed Valance Gill, a steamfitter and lifelong Democrat, who has been a member of the San Leandro City Council since 1956 and vice-mayor for the last four years.

Gill's opponent has no experience in public office. In the six years Gill has been a city councilman, San Leandro has cut taxes seven times, attracting new industries and jobs.

For two contested Superior Court offices in Alameda County, be sure to vote for Robert L. Bostick, (Office No. 1) and George W. Phillips Jr. (Office No. 2). COPE picked them as being most fair-minded after screening other candidates.

100,000 jobs for Bay Area

Measure A, if authorized by voters next Tuesday, will provide for a $792 million, 75 mile regional rapid transit network in Alameda, Contra Costa and San Francisco counties.

Designed to alleviate automobile congestion and supplement freeways, the network will serve 37 stations with trains averaging 50 miles an hour, including station stops.

Trains would run as often as every 90 seconds. Twenty miles of tracks would be built in subways, 31 miles on aerial structures and 24 miles on the surface.

Construction would start in January, 1964, and would provide jobs for an average of 3,000 a year during construction. Peak construction labor force would be 8,000.

Permanent operation force would be nearly 1,000.

Experts say the system would bring 100,000 new jobs to the Bay Area because of improved transportation.

Hi. Only a few short weeks until Christmas. That's the season of Peace on Earth, Goodwill to all men. Unless of course we're engaged in a missile war with Russia and Cuba and stuff like that there.

Frankly, friends, President Kennedy is caught between American security nationally, and American prestige internationally. At the present time we have only one course to pursue. The defense of America. To do less would be complete surrender.

President Kennedy has endured severe criticism from politicians and journalists not adverse to making political hay out of a serious emergency.

The threat of a nuclear war has diluted the loyalties of some allies. We recognize their fear has weakened their convictions.

We urge complete support for President Kennedy in this crisis. We have in mind his gallant courage in helping his men swim to safety when his PT boat was sunk in World War II.

His record as a legislator, and as President, show his concern for the people.

As a husband and father, he is worried about the safety and security of his loved ones. But, as President, his decisions affect us all. Like the song says, "He's got the whole world in his hands."

Sheet Metal Snips

By AL ARELLANO

As the day of electing our various representatives in local, state and federal offices gets closer, I would ask each and every one of our members to take the time to vote.

In this period of critical decisions to be made by our courageous President it behooves each and every one of us to back him in whatever duties he asks of us. More than ever, we, as working people should be interested in what goes on at the polls. Not all of the enemies of the American people are outside of our borders. There are many who try to sneak in by the ballot with their double talk and false smiles. Once in, they will use their good office to rob us of the liberties and conditions it has taken us so long to obtain.

So, let us be sure to vote. Take your neighbor with you to the polls.

Dr. Roy E. Simpson has endorsed Dr. Ralph Richardson as his successor for state superintendent of public instruction.

Dr. Simpson, who is retiring after 17 years in the non-partisan office, indicated he disagrees with the philosophy of Dr. Richardson's opponent, Dr. Max Rafferty, who is backed by right-wing groups.

Dr. Simpson said:

"I shall vote for Dr. Richardson on Nov. 6 because I believe he is the better man for the job.

"I have carefully studied the records, philosophies and performances of the two candidates seeking this office. I believe I understand what each stands for and what could be expected from each if elected."

Dr. Richardson has been unanimously endorsed by the State AFLCIO Council on Political Education.

aren't aware of the dangers to civil liberties contained in Proposition 24.

Groulx urged all those at Monday night's meeting to put bumper strips for Governor Brown and judicial candidate George W. Phillips Jr. on their cars.

He said a lot of work has been done by a relatively small number of volunteers so far.

"We can do a good job if we get about four times the people working we have now," Groulx concluded.

Assistant Secretary Norman Amundson told of a rally for Nixon for which San Ramon School District youngsters were dismissed from classes to swell the crowd and the applause for the GOP candidate.

CIO President Russell Crowell pledged to devote every minute he and his staff could give between now and the election to helping defeat Nixon and his teammates. Crowell strongly urged other union officials to do the same.

'NIXON CAN BE 18'

Biemiller, a former congressman from Wisconsin, said AFLCIO President George Meany requested all AFLCIO department directors to visit key states and tell people how much is at stake in Tuesday's election.

"In the process of electing President Kennedy in 1960, we lost 21 friends of labor in the House of Representatives, Biemiller pointed out.

And now we are up against the fact that only twice in the 20th Century has the party in power gained in off-year elections, he added.

In 1958, Biemiller added, labor in California worked together as never before to defeat Proposition 13. And we elected Governor Edmund G. (Pat) Brown and his administration.

"You may not think Nixon is Proposition 18," Biemiller declared. "But, believe me, Nixon can be 18! We've all got a lot of work to do!"

Don't let Nixon's smears muddy up the real issues

The vicious smear campaign by Nixon and his forces has reached a fever pitch.

Most of the political news stories in the press these last few weeks have been reports of Nixon distortions, and statements by Governor Brown and the Democrats to set the record straight.

We hope Nixon hasn't muddied the issues so much that voters will stay away from the polls next Tuesday.

This is one of the most crucial elections in California's history. Everyone should vote. Let's be sure the state government we have for the next four important years is truly representative of all the people of our great state.

Be on the alert for a last minute smear attack by Nixon. He said not long ago that he had something "big" to release just before the election.

Whatever it is, remember that last minute smear attacks are unleashed at the last minute for just one reason — so the opposition won't have time to answer them properly.

To clarify the real issues of this election, we have listed major accomplishments of the Brown Administration, starting on page one and continuing on this page. For comparison, we have also printed Nixon's record.

The case is clear.

Governor Brown is our kind of governor. Let's be sure he's reelected.

Be sure to vote Tuesday.

Other statewide candidates

The entire Brown team should be re-elected. All have been endorsed by labor. All are outstanding public servants.

Special attention should be called to Lieutenant Governor Glenn M. Anderson, a tried and true friend of labor during his long public career. Union voters should not be led astray by his opponent, the mayor of a neighboring city, whose labor record is best summed up by the fact that he voted 185 times against pay raises for municipal employees.

The only non-incumbent in the Brown team for state constitutional office is Don Rose, Democratic candidate for secretary of state. Elect Rose and replace the Republican incumbent, who has used his office to issue GOP propaganda and to launch a campaign for the return of cross-filing.

In recent weeks, we have listed pressing reasons to elect State Senator Richard Richards to the U.S. Senate and Dr. Ralph Richardson to the important non-partisan office of state superintendent of public instruction. Give both your vote. Also deserving of union votes is John W. Lynch, endorsed by labor for re-election to the State Board of Equalization.

Vote for the entire Brown team!

Support JFK in Congress

An AFLCIO legislative report says the 87th Congress "left undone far too much essential business."

The sad fact is that Republicans and Southern Democrats ganged up to defeat much of President Kennedy's program.

We need to re-elect strong supporters of President Kennedy, like our incumbent Alameda County Congressmen Jeffrey Cohelan (7th District) and George P. Miller (8th District). Both have outstanding records.

Miller is the senior member of Congress from Northern California. Recently, he was appointed chairman of the key House Science and Astronautics Committee.

Cohelan, now seeking his third term, is a former union official and Berkeley city councilman. He has been secretary of the California congressional delegation, House delegate to the 1961 Institute of Strategic Studies Conference on Arms Control at Geneva and the U.N. Aviation Organization.

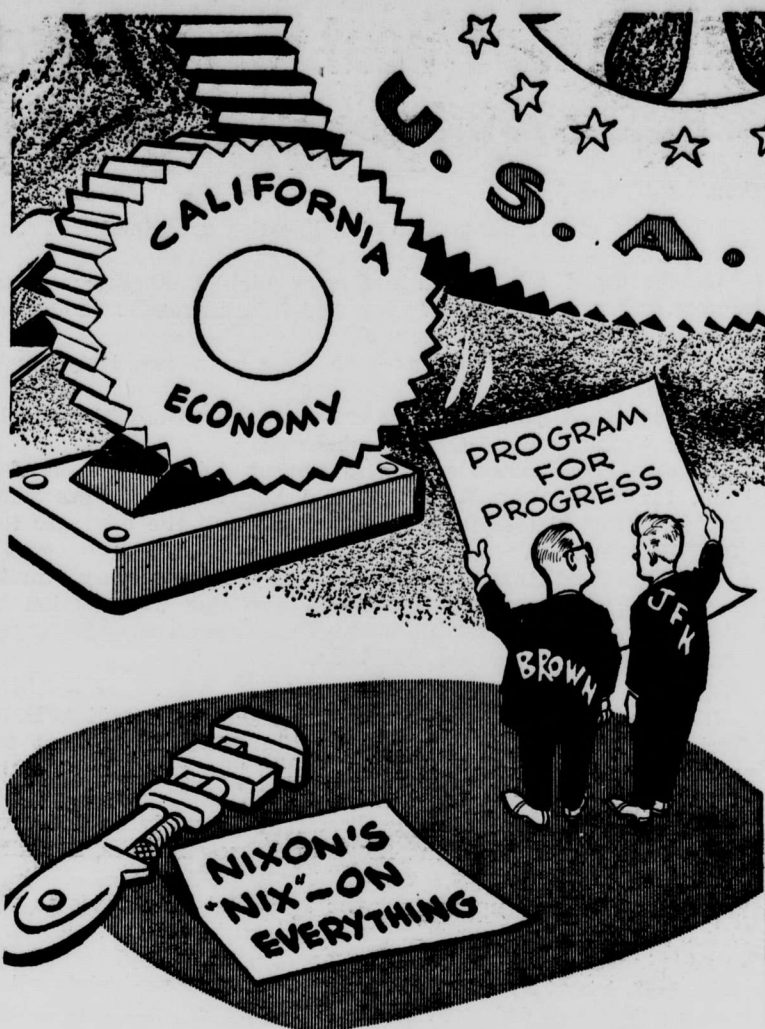

We need more men like Miller and Cohelan in Congress.

Such men are W. Donlon (Don) Edwards, Democratic candidate in the new 9th District, and Charles R. Weidner, Democratic candidate in Contra Costa County's 14th District.

Weidner, a union health and welfare administrator, faces a GOP incumbent who voted against U.N. bonds and to weaken or defeat key Kennedy programs. Weidner has put on a strong campaign and would be a strong member of President Kennedy's team in Congress.

So would Edwards, a San Jose title company owner and attorney, who has outspokenly voiced his pledges to vote for legislation favored by President Kennedy and the AFLCIO. Edwards' opponent is an arch-conservative who is executive secretary of the Santa Clara County Medical Society.

and develop training programs for new skills have been made to adjust worker demand to supply.

In the past year alone, California's growing economy has produced more than 220,000 new jobs. Employment is at an all-time high, and unemployment is going down.

Governor Brown has pledged that he will be satisfied "with nothing short of our goal of full employment."

Under the Brown Administration, wages, per capita income and retail sales are at all-time highs, and construction is booming.

For the unemployed, California was first to extend jobless benefits for an extra 13 weeks during the recession. Unemployment benefits have been increased by 37½ per cent to a weekly minimum of $55.

Workmen's compensation has been increased 40 per cent to a weekly minimum of $70.

Compensation for permanent disability has gone up 31 per cent and death benefits for widows and dependents 36½ per cent.

CIVIL RIGHTS — After years of Republican delays, the state's first Fair Employment Practices Law was enacted. Governor Brown plans to strengthen the law by providing for affirmative compliance and education.

The State Civil Rights Act has been extended to prohibit discrimination by business and real estate firms. Employment discrimination based solely on age has also been banned by law.

CONSUMER COUNSEL — At Governor Brown's request, the Legislature established the state's first Office of Consumer Counsel, which has protected consumers against fraud, deception and waste, saving Californians millions of dollars.

In the field of recreation, California is steadily expanding its state parks and beaches to meet the needs of the growing population.

PUBLIC EMPLOYEES — Organizational rights of public employees were secured. Teacher tenure was extended to small districts with protection for probationary teachers. Coordinated social security benefits were made available to state employees.

SOCIAL WELFARE — Aid to the needy aged was increased to $100 a month, with cost-of-living and expanded medical benefits. Also increased were aid to the disabled, blind and needy children. Undue burdens on children to care for needy aged parents were removed or reduced.

Farm workers were brought under disability insurance protection. Minimum wage coverage was given women and children on farms. Health clinics for migrant workers were set up, and inspection of farm labor camps was improved. Farm labor bus safety orders were tightened.

NARCOTICS — Crime rates are going down. Tough new laws now put dope peddlers behind bars but emphasize rehabilitation for his victims. Governor Brown hopes to give police departments new laws to fight dangerous new drugs.

BUDGET — Under Governor Brown, there has been no increase in state taxes since 1959. Annual tax reductions totaling over $25 million have been approved in the last 18 months.

EDUCATION — California has the strongest public school system in the United States. Despite huge population increases, 6,000 new classrooms a year have cut the number of pupils on half-day sessions by 60 per cent.

The Master Plan for Higher Education has brought order out of chaos in the problems confronting state colleges and universities because of population growth.

WATER — Governor Brown personally pushed the world's largest water project through the Legislature.

Then he went before the people and convinced them that it was necessary. They approved a $1.75 billion bond issue two years ago.

NIXON'S RECORD 87% ANTI-LABOR

From COPE

Richard M. Nixon has compiled an overall voting record which was 87 per cent in opposition to the best interests of working people and the needs of the nation.

Nixon's dismal voting record on all issues was exceeded only by his record of contempt for working men and women on issues directly affecting working conditions and labor-management relations.

He is recorded as voting against the working man on 14 out of 15 key votes in this area of labor legislation:

• Nixon cast six votes restricting the rights of workers in connection with the Taft-Hartley Law.

These included votes for passage of this anti-labor law, in opposition to its repeal, and in favor of applying the act's injunction provisions against the Steelworkers after the steel corporations refused to accept a Wage Stabilization Board decision in 1952.

• On minimum wage issues, Nixon voted to remove a million workers from the protection of the Federal Wage-Hour Law.

He voted for the Portal-to-Portal Act to permit employers to escape penalties and liabilities for violations of the Walsh-Healey, Bacon-Davis and Fair Labor Standards acts.

While Vice President, Nixon even voted for the infamous Knowland amendment to scuttle procedures to determine prevailing wage rates on public works.

• Nixon cast three anti-labor votes to subvert the Labor Department's services to workers, including two votes against sorely needed appropriations and one backing an employer-inspired move to transfer the U.S. Employment Service out of the department.

• Nixon voted during the Korean War to strip the Wage Stabilization Board of its powers to help settle labor disputes.

• Nixon climaxed his anti-labor record with a tie-breaking vote in the Senate in 1959 on a Goldwater motion which converted the Senate's anti-racketeering bill into an anti-labor vehicle, paving the way for enactment of the Landrum-Griffin Law.

On matters of public interest concerning the needs of the entire nation, Nixon compiled the following record of faithful service and obedience to the special interests of the few:

• In the housing area, Nixon voted five times to block programs designed to provide public and private housing to meet the needs of low and middle income families priced out of the market by the high interest rate policies he championed.

• On public power issues, Nixon voted consistently on five occasions for the private power interests against low cost public power for consumers and industry.

• On general consumer issues, Nixon voted 10 out of 12 times to the detriment of the buying public and in favor of those who would cheat the consumers.

• On social security proposals, Nixon voted twice, without any offsetting favorable votes, against providing adequate benefits for senior citizens who have contributed a lifetime to the building of their country.

• On civil rights measures, Nixon registered three key votes against equal rights for all Americans.

• In the field of education, Nixon cast the tie-breaking vote against aid to school construction and teachers' salaries in the School Assistance Act of 1960.
